Mrs. Emily Sturtevant

New Bedford Nov. 19. 1838.

PHELPS MSS.

My dear Brother,

I rec'd a letter from you more than two weeks since accompanied by a notice of an Anti-Slavery Fair. I should have answered you immediately but I had then taken a school to oblige a friend for three weeks & I could not say decidedly whether I could do any thing to assist you or not. I can only say now that I will devote next week to the object. I think the best thing I can do will be to make up half a dozen caps, such as are worn now, & some collars for Edward - If I can do any thing more I will - but I can think of nothing that would be more saleable & profitable than caps. I may not be able to send the articles before the time specified but will try to get them done a few days before - I shall send them to your office as I know nothing of the Directors nor they of me - I do not know when or where William's next voyage will be - but the probability is he will go some where before Jan. whenever he leaves I shall go to [illegible] in which I am joining by William's [illegible] - With much love to Edward & yourself I am

Your affectionate Sister Emily